

1st Annual
Lord & Schryver Conservancy
Neighborhood Garden Tour

Saturday & Sunday, June 1 & 2, 2019, 10am - 4pm

INFORMATION SHEET

What is it?

An annual tour of residential gardens, many open to the public for the first time. The tour is the successor to the popular garden tours run by the Gilbert House Children's Museum for 21 years.

Where is it?

The 2019 Neighborhood Garden Tour will be in the Englewood Neighborhood of northeast Salem, Oregon.

When is it?

The tour will be held on Saturday & Sunday, June 1 & 2, 10 am to 4 pm both days.

Why should I attend?

A stroll through these attractive and unique residential gardens will be a highly enjoyable experience to share with friends or family. The garden tour is also an opportunity to discover new plants and learn new ideas about garden design and tips on maintenance from garden owners and docents. You may even be inspired to re-imagine your own yard so that it becomes an outdoor living space that more fully reflects you and your lifestyle!

How much is it?

The tour is an annual fundraiser for the Lord & Schryver Conservancy. The ticket price is just $20 per person ages 16 and older and free under age 16.

Where do I purchase tickets?

Beginning in early 2019, tickets may be purchased online through eventbrite, and possibly through select local businesses.

Who were Lord and Schryver?

Elizabeth Lord and Edith Schryver were two remarkable landscape architects who designed approximately 250 gardens in the Northwest. They were the first professionally-trained female landscape architects to own and operate their own business (1929 – 1969) on the West Coast. The Lord & Schryver Conservancy owns the historic home and garden of Elizabeth Lord and Edith Schryver on Mission Street in Salem, fondly known as Gaiety Hollow. The house and garden are on the National Register of Historic Places. The Lord & Schryver Conservancy also maintains the historic gardens at Deepwood Museum & Gardens, also designed by Lord and Schryver.
